The Galperin Tuition Assistance Fund is sustained through donations from patrons and EYSO families, program advertising sales, and concert merchandise sales at our concerts.

While we are firmly committed to extending the opportunity for each musician accepted into EYSO to play in our orchestras, our ability to fulfill requests for financial assistance are limited to the funds raised. Musicians requesting assistance will pay a portion of their tuition on the first day of rehearsal. Assistance funds are dispersed after the winter concert. If the fund cannot fill all the assistance requested, musicians are responsible to pay the remaining tuition balance by the spring concert.

The majority of this fund is supported by sales of program advertisements. Musicians who request tuition assistance are expected to solicit one or more advertisements. The amount dispersed is based upon need, funds available and number of ads the musician has sold. Advertisement forms can be downloaded from the EYSO website www.everettyouthsymphony.org.
